GEORGIA FLOOD

Credits include the lead role of Alice Ross-King in the miniseries Anzac Girls for the ABC, for which Georgia received a Best Actress Nomination at the Golden Nymph Awards in Monte Carlo. Main cast credits include Wentworth (Foxtel), Home & Away (Seven), House Husbands (Nine Network), Tangle (Foxtel) and most recently Here Come The Habibs (Nine Network).

Georgia's professional stage debut was for the Melbourne Theatre Company's production of Blackbird. Her other stage credits include Don Parties On, also for MTC and Arcadia for Sydney Theatre Company in 2016.

This mixed body of work has seen Georgia twice (2013 & 2016) be named runner up for the Heath Ledger Scholarship. Georgia's training includes study at the Paris-based L'cole Internationale de Theatre Jacques Lecoq, masterclasses with Larry Moss, the six week Ivana Chubbuck intensive, and personal classes with Carol Rosenfeld.

With such diverse training and extensive experience, we are certain we will only be seeing more of Georgia on stage and screen.
