MORGAN DAVIES

It's been a busy time for Morgan, with a lead role in the enormously popular Series 2 of The Girlfriend Experience, a Starz Original Series, and a lead in the re-telling of iconic feature film Storm Boy, which is set for release in January 2019.

He is currently filming the role of Oberon in Foxtel's drama The End, by See-Saw Films.

Morgan made his screen debut at only seven years of age opposite Charlotte Gainsbourg in the Australian/French feature film The Tree. Directed by Julie Bertuccelli, the film premiered on closing night of the Cannes Film Festival and earned Morgan rave reviews. His performance was honoured with a Film Critics Circle Award and AFI nominations in both the categories of Best Lead Actor and Best Young Actor.

The following year, Morgan appeared in The Hunter, an adaptation of the award-winning novel by Julia Leigh. The film, starring Willem Dafoe and Sam Neill, premiered at the Toronto International Film Festival (TIFF) and saw Morgan again nominated for an AFI (AACTA).

Other credits followed, including a lead guest role in Steven Spielberg's Terra Nova and the short film Julian, which took out the Crystal Bear for Best Short Film at the Berlin Film Festival in the Generation KPlus category.

Morgan later appeared in Return To The Devil's Playground for Foxtel (Director: Rachel Ward) and in Alice Englert's short film The Boyfriend Game, which premiered at TIFF.
