JORDIE RACE-COLDREY

Jordie made his screen debut with the main cast role of Jesse in Nowhere Boys: Two Moons Rising for ABCMe. He appears in the show's fourth series, Nowhere Boys: Battle for Negative Space, this year, off the back of a successful season three which saw the show win a BAFTA Children's Award.

Having trained in dance, drama and singing from an early age, Jordie is an emerging triple threat. He has a number of stage credits including lead roles in Oliver! with Babirra Music Theatre, and 13 with Catchment Players. Most recently, he was in Les Miserables for the Young Australian Broadway Chorus.

He won Best Actor in a Youth Musical at the 2018 Lyrebird Awards for The Addams Family (Trinity Grammar/Ruyton Girls' School) and Best Young Actor at the 2018 Oniros Film Awards for the short film In My Head.

Jordie has also recently released a song, which he recorded for Nowhere Boys Season Four, on iTunes and Spotify.
