SAM ALHAJE

Sam is perhaps best known for the role of Toufic in Nine's hit comedy Here Come the Habib's.

He recently appeared in both Rake and Sando for the ABC, and in the SBS short film Concern for Welfare, by Pomegranite Productions. His next project is a guest role in Hardball, for Northern Pictures.

Other screen credits include Hidden Peaks, Deadly Women and Facing Evil, all from Beyond Productions.

Sam completed his training at 'The Actors Pulse', drawing on the Meisner technique for Film & Stage. He then went on to study the 'Scott Sedita Comedy Intensive Technique' focusing specifically on sitcom acting techniques.

Sam began his career doing local theatre as well as featuring in various TVC's.
