EMMANUELLE MATTANA

Emmanuelle plays the lead role of Marnie in the popular ABC teen series Mustangs FC, which was nominated for a 2018 International Emmy Kids Award and is returning soon for season 3.

As well as studying a Bachelor of Fine Arts at RMIT in Melbourne, she is completing the Part Time Ensemble Program at 16th Street Actors Studio. Last year, she completed the Professional Youth Program at the Howard Fine Acting Studio.

In her year 12 filmmaking debut, she was selected for the Art Express exhibition by The Art Gallery of NSW for her documentary Les langues imparfaites (the imperfect languages), which follows her French father and young brother as they navigate dual languages and cultural identities.

In 2016, she was the winner of Sport for Jove's NSW Shakespeare Carnival and also participated in the NSW Arts Unit State Drama Festival.

Emmanuelle has competed in the Women's Premier League in Football and is a talented athlete.

Emmanuelle can speak French, has voice over and commercial experience and was a regular participant in the Impro Australia Theatresports School Challenge in Sydney.
