SAM ALHAJE

Sam is perhaps best known for the role of Toufic in Nine's hit comedy Here Come the Habib's.

He recently appeared in Hardball, for Northern Pictures; Rake and Sando for the ABC; and in the SBS short film Concern for Welfare, by Pomegranite Productions.

Other screen credits include Hidden Peaks, Deadly Women and Facing Evil, all from Beyond Productions.

Sam has undertaken a Larry Moss Masterclass at 16th Street Actors Studio. He has trained at 'The Actors Pulse', drawing on the Meisner technique for Film & Stage, and then went on to study the 'Scott Sedita Comedy Intensive Technique' focusing specifically on sitcom acting techniques.

Sam began his career doing local theatre as well as featuring in various TVC's.
