EMMANUELLE MATTANA

Emmanuelle is best known for playing the lead role of Marnie in three seasons of the popular ABCMe/Matchbox Pictures teen series Mustangs FC, which was nominated for an International Emmy Kids Award. Recent credits include Netflix's Clickbait and Ms Fisher's MODern Murder Mysteries for Acorn TV.

As an emerging writer-director, Emmanuelle's recent comedy short The Odyssey was awarded Best Youth Film at the St Kilda Film Festival (2021). The film was commissioned by the Melbourne Queer Film Festival in partnership with Victoria Together and has since played at festivals internationally. Her debut student short film Les Langues Imparfaites (The Imperfect Languages) exhibited at the Art Gallery of NSW in 2018 and subsequently toured regionally as a part of the NSW Art Unit's ArtExpress exhibition.

Emmanuelle can speak French and is a skilled voiceover artist with both audiobook and commercial experience. She is a graduate of 16th Street Actors' Studio and Howard Fine Acting Studio's youth program, and is the Winner of AAFTA's 2022 Carmen Duncan Scholarship.
