

Catherine Poulton Management

INGRID TORELLI

Ingrid appears in main cast roles in Foxtel's upcoming miniseries The End, for See-Saw Films and Stan's Bloom Series 2, for Playmaker. She also recurs in Five Bedrooms, for Hoodlum Productions and Network Ten.

Ingrid has had lead roles in many short films including The Mirror which has been nominated for Best Short film at the 2020 AACTA Awards; They Can't Hear You (Monster Fest, winner Sicily International Film Festival, MedFF, Short CineFest 2019); Red & Blue (VCA); One Last Leaf and Eva Lazzaro's Holy Spirit.

She played the role of Matilda in the Melbourne season of Matilda the Musical. For this role, she was the joint recipient of a Helpmann Award in 2016 for Best Actor in a Musical and received a Green Room nomination in 2017. She was also one of the lucky few selected to perform in the musical's opening night and at the Helpmann Awards in Sydney.

Ingrid's training includes classical singing and classes at Drama with a Difference, The Australian Film and Television Academy, The Australian Girls' Choir and Eastern Gymnastics.

Ingrid is bilingual (Italian). She is passionate about maintaining her creativity and open-mindedness, as well as developing her general knowledge and love of film, and her interest in how people think and feel.

November, 2020