

Catherine Poulton Management

KIMBERLEY HODGSON

Kimberley currently understudies the role of Anna in Disney Theatrical Production Australia's Frozen: The Musical. Following her role in Belvoir Theatre's creative development of Fangirls, Kimberley returned to the Belvoir stage for the 2019 co-production with Queensland Theatre.

Kimberley played Fancisca, and understudy for Anita, in Opera Australia's six-time-Helpmann nominated West Side Story on Sydney Harbour and was Jasmine understudy/Ensemble in Disney's electrifying Aladdin the Musical.

On screen, Kimberley has appeared in a guest role in Harrow and played the role of Grace in the 2017 feature film Don't Tell, from director Tori Garret. She has a Bachelor of Musical Theatre from Queensland Conservatorium Griffith University, where she received a Bachelor's Excellence medal for her final year, and a Certificate IV in Musical Theatre from Queensland College of Performing Arts. She has also undertaken Advanced Screen Acting at The Warehouse Workshop - Screen Acting Studio.

Kimberley was nominated Best Female Actor in a Supporting Role and Best Emerging Artist at the 2015 Matilda Awards for her role as Little Red Riding Hood in Into the Woods (Harvest Rain, QPAC). She toured nationally playing the original role of Sarah in the Australian premiere of Rolling Thunder Vietnam (Blake Entertainment), alongside Chong Lim, and sung at the 2016 Melbourne International Comedy Festival's Eurovision Experience.

May 2021