DANIEL R NIXON

Daniel is a 2019 graduate from the Victorian College of the Arts with a Bachelor in Fine Arts in Music Theatre.

Since immigrating to Perth from Bournemouth (England), Daniel studied a Certificate IV in Music Theatre at WAAPA in 2016. Daniel then relocated in 2017 to Melbourne to commence his training at the VCA. Whilst training, his credits include "Willy"/"Harry" (Understudy) in Flora: The Red Menace (dir. Jason Langley), "Tommy"/Ensemble in A Chorus Line (dir. Tyran Parke), "Miss Turnstiles MC"/ Ensemble in On The Town (dir. Adam Mitchell) and was also a featured soloist for the Arts Centre Melbourne's Morning Melodies at Hamer Hall in 2018 (dir. Margot Fenley) and 2019 (dir. Jayde Kirchert).

Daniel is the proud recipient of the 2018 Cassidy Bequest Scholarship for excellence in Music Theatre at the VCA and is also an MEAA Equity member.

In addition to acting, Daniel is a singer, dancer and musician.
