

Catherine Poulton Management

EDGAR STIRLING

2022 starts off well for Edgar who will be playing Christian Bechdel in Fun Home for the Melbourne Theatre Company, based on Alison Bechdel's bestselling graphic novel.

Edgar played Charlie Bucket in the Melbourne season of Roald Dahl's spectacular Charlie and the Chocolate Factory, and was invited to reprise his role for a further season in Brisbane for 2021.

Prior to this, Edgar was cast as Gavroche in the Young Australian Broadway Chorus' sell out production of Les Misérables, and played the role of 'Stanley' in an online musical production of Flat Stanley while at home (isolating).

In 2016, Edgar contributed lyrics to the ABC Hush 16 album, A Piece of Quiet, which was shortlisted for an ARIA award.

Edgar trained with the Australian Boys Choir and Young Australian Broadway Chorus. He studies singing and piano, loves comedy, musical theatre, reading, history, table tennis and writing stories.

January 2022