

Catherine Poulton Management

NINA LIPPMANN

Nina discovered her passion for performing after participating in her first musical production in Townsville whilst studying a Bachelor of Education.

She now holds a Bachelor of Musical Theatre from Queensland Conservatorium (Griffith University). During her studies, she performed in roles such as the title character in The Drowsy Chaperone and Barbara Finn in Elegies. She was cast as Elphaba in Wicked but it was cancelled due to COVID-19.

Along with her strong acting abilities, Nina has an extensive vocal range.